something that's very important -- team spirit, if you will -- for any given floor."

Dr. Spitzer claimed, "Not enought has been done to set the standards of security and the rewards for excellence in the residence halls as we should have. I'd like to see a certain amount of competition developed by the students; whether it's activities in athletics, scholastic, or housekeeping. I'd like to see some recognition to sections of the residence halls that really excel."

The key to improving life in the residence halls, "is student interest in themselves. They must cooperate with Mary Messerlie, my housekeeping staffs and others to improve."

NSBE Sponsors Basketball Tournament

On March 21, 1981, the National Society of Black Engineers sponsored their first annual non-varsity basketball tournament at MSOE's Sports Center. A total of eight teams participated.

First prize, a team trophy and a quarter-barrel of beer, was awarded to radio station WNOV. Second prize, individual medals, was awarded to the Cosey's, a team consisting of MSOE students. All the awards were donated by the Special
